

Moovly Announces Partnership with French Provider of E-learning Authoring Solutions Kumullus

VANCOUVER, CANADA - February 8, 2024 - Moovly Media Inc. (TSX.V: MVY) (OTCQB: MVVYF) (FRANKFURT: OPV2) ("Moovly" or the "Company") is pleased to unveil a new integration partnership with Kumullus, a French edtech company providing a cutting-edge SaaS-based authoring tool for video learning. Using Kumullus' platform, companies are able to create highly engaging, interactive and professional-quality training courses.

The integration with Moovly enables Kumullus to offer advanced video creation capabilities within its comprehensive e-learning authoring environment, empowering digital learning managers and course designers to craft engaging videos that can be seamlessly incorporated into their Kumullus learning content. The powerful combination of video and interactivity significantly enhances user engagement and offers richer, more immersive learning experiences.

Geert Coppens, Chief Technical Officer of Moovly, said: "We are proud to help Kumullus expand its impressive offering with our powerful, customizable video creation capabilities. Thanks to this integration, learning content creators will significantly benefit from the additional value that interactive video brings to e-learning effectiveness and learner engagement."

Julien Jean-Alexis, Chief Product Officer of Kumullus added: "As the leading authoring tool for video learning, we are excited to add this versatile video creation extension to our platform. Our customers are now able to easily produce captivating video content in any style and on any topic, and as such elevate the attractiveness and effectiveness of their educational materials. And above all without leaving our authoring tool."

This partnership highlights Moovly's proficiency in offering a highly adaptable and integration-friendly video creation platform. Its ability to equip third-party platforms with a wide range of video creation features underscores the value of Moovly's solutions across various domains where video content creation or generation is key.
